This is your opportunity to give something back to those who care by nominating them for the Hazel Seeley Award 2018.

Some examples of the help that nominees might give are:

- Caring for people within the community
- Carrying out voluntary work
- Artistic and cultural achievements in the community
- Service to the general public

The award is named after former Parish Councillor Hazel Seeley whom served continuously on the Croxley Green Parish Council for 18 years.

The nominations will be judged by a selection of Parish Councillors.

Successful nominees will be notified by Friday March 30th 2018 and they will be invited to an Awards Ceremony in the Village Hall, Community Centre on Thursday 26th April 2018.
