CONSENT and CONDITIONS

1. I give consent to my child taking part in the pumpkin carving session. This consent shall apply to any session in which my child participates on or after the date of my signature below.
2. I acknowledge that the Croxley Green Parish Council Office and Car Park offers particular hazards – including but not limited to uneven ground and sharp edges. I accept that the Parish Council cannot limit the exposure of my child to these hazards and it is my responsibility to watch my child at all times to guard against risk.
3. I agree
 - a. to obey any reasonable instructions given by a Parish Council employee in relation to the health and or safety of participants.
 - b. to accompany the child at all times during the session. Any arrangements I make for another adult to take temporary charge of my child are my responsibility. I note that no Parish employee or volunteer will take responsibility for the child at any time.
 - c. that if my child or a child for whom I am responsible at a session is on medication, I will ensure that a supply is brought to the session.
 - d. that it is my responsibility alone to administer any medication or first aid treatment to the child named on this form.
 - e. that my child may get dirty carving pumpkins
 - f. to provide gloves and protective clothing for my child if I consider it to be needed.
 - g. that it is my responsibility in the event of an accident or incident to seek such medical assistance for my child as I consider necessary.
 - h. that while the Parish Council will make reasonable endeavours to accommodate conditions and disabilities so that no child is excluded from a session unnecessarily there may be adjustments that cannot be made for reason of cost or practicality and in those circumstances a child may be excluded. I agree that the Parish Council shall not be held responsible for any loss or distress that arises from this decision.
 - i. that in the event that the child behaves in such a manner as to spoil the enjoyment or affect the safety of other attendees I shall on the request of a Parish Ranger, remove the child from the remainder of the session even if that means I must remove other(s) for whom I am responsible.
 - j. that photographs and short videos of activities including my child may be taken for use in Parish Council publicity and for possible wider publication including the parish's annual report, the Parish Pump Light, a newspaper, or internet, including social media managed by the Parish Council. Reasonable efforts will be made to avoid the faces of children attending the sessions in photographs.

I consent to the above; I have read and I agree to the conditions, which I confirm are reasonable.

CONDITIONS of attendance at a pumpkin carving session

1. The Parish Rangers, other Parish Council staff and any volunteers assisting with sessions will exercise reasonable care in offering advice.
2. All tools and other equipment used during sessions remain the property of the Parish Council and are to be returned at the end of each session.
3. You may choose to bring one or more siblings to a session in addition to the child named above. The condition that you are responsible for a child throughout a session applies equally to more than one child brought by you to a session.
4. You may choose to bring your child's friend to a session in addition to the child named above. In that case you must provide an application form for the child and a separate letter from the child's adult carer confirming you are responsible for the child in accordance with this document.
5. Attendance at sessions will be limited to a maximum of 16 children. Places for each session will be allocated on a first come first served basis. In the interest of the safety and enjoyment of all participants, the maximum number will not be exceeded.
6. Children will be able to take home the pumpkins that they have carved, if you do not wish to take the pumpkin home, we will display them in front of the Parish Council office.
